In the originally published article, Australia should have been identified as Oceania in the abstract, text, and Figure 1.

In the caption for Figure 1, one of the colour should have been identified as blue instead of green.

The corrected figure and caption are shown here:

Fig. 1. Bar plot demonstrating the number of peer-reviewed publications that made reference to Indigenous territories or Indigenous peoples based on geographical location. Numbers above bars represent the total number of publications in a given category. Blue bars represent publications that had Indigenous acknowledgement. Orange bars represent publications that had no Indigenous acknowledgement.

Additionally, a co-author did not appear in the contributions section. The correct text is below.

KAS and AJT conceived and designed the study. AJT, SAB, AMC, KPM, and SBW performed the experiments/collected the data. AJT, SAB, AMC, MH, KPM, RGW, and SBW drafted or revised the manuscript.

The original article has been corrected.
